Geodinamica Acta

Editor-in-chief

Jean Van Den Driessche

2009

Geodinamica Acta* publishes articles (original research studies, comprehensive reviews) and book reviews dealing with both internal and external geodynamics. Its aims to promote discussion between the various disciplines that work on the dynamics of the lithosphere and hydrosphere. There are no constraints over themes provided the main thrust of the paper relates to Earth's internal and external geodynamics.

In addition Special Issues devoted to a single topic, and edited by an authority in that field, are also published.

Geodinamica Acta is aimed at Geologists, Geophysicists, Geomorphologists and Physical Geographers.
